

PERENNIALS

Perennials are plants that come back every spring

They range from low growing to tall growing plants

Some produce colorful flowers while others have colorful leaves and foliage

Perennials generally have less major problems than annuals lower maintenance and care

The perennial blooms about 3 weeks on average and at different times of the season

They can be grown almost anywhere and can adapt to most garden situations